CONSUMER AWARENESS CAMPAIGN STRETCHES
FROM COAST TO COAST REACHING MILLIONS

WFCA-Sponsored National Media Tours
Raise Awareness With Key Consumer Outlets

Anaheim, CA – July 27, 2010 – Through ongoing and aggressive programs and tactics designed to increase floor covering awareness, the World Floor Covering Association (WFCA) continues to reach target consumers in record numbers.

One component of its consumer program includes annual media tours of New York City and Des Moines — homes to key national “shelter” publications and magazines targeted to women. For the 2010 tours, WFCA trend scouts selected innovative new products that launched at the Surfaces tradeshow in February to share with magazine editors. In total, the WFCA contacted over thirty Surfaces exhibitors from around the world to participate in the tours. Making the list were products ranging from self-cleaning porcelain tiles to scratch, scuff and stain resistant hardwoods.

So far, the reception from the media sources in New York City has been exceedingly positive, with nearly all reporting that they plan on using the information provided in feature articles in upcoming issues. Already, stories in Good Housekeeping, Distinctive Kitchen & Bath Ideas, Country Accents, This Old House, Better Homes & Gardens Renovation Style and Woman’s Day Windows Walls & Floors have been secured.

“These media tours are a critical component of our consumer program and they serve a very important objective for the industry,” said D. Christopher Davis, President & CEO, WFCA. “They allow us to enhance our existing relationships with key consumer press; position ourselves as the unbiased, credible resource for any and all information on flooring; and offer multiple and ongoing consumer press opportunities to our manufacturer and distributor members. All of this translates into increased awareness and sales.” Davis along with Cammie Weitzel, WFCA General Manager and Leah Gross-Harmon, Principal of Story Dept., LLC — the WFCA’s public agency of record, conducted the media tours.
